

Every condition patched into the baseline run, one panel per model.
 The donor residual replaces the baseline's after layer l ; M is then read at the model's output.

